WAIVER: I also declare under my own responsibility to fully accept each and all the rules of the International Competition, and specifically what herein follows. I declare that the audio recording with which I participate to the International Competition is my original property, has been made personally by me or with the support of third parties I trust, and that it has not been officially published by any physical or virtual official Record Company, that it is free from third party rights/copyrights, or that, if the recording was already published, it has been previously released by me with a specific agreement with my/the official Record Company and/or Agency and/or Agent, being myself authorized to submit it (the recording) to this International Competition, and that the recording could be, if declared the winner, freely republished by the Record Company of this International Competition organized by Latitude Life APS. I declare to freely give, extensively free of any charge, the rights on my audio recording as presented by me to the International Competition, to the Record Company that the Organization has identified as the final publisher. I hereby declare that all the material attached to this document and sent to participate into the International Competition, including texts and/or images, is free from third party rights/copyrights, and/or that I have been authorized to use and send it as attached material required to participate to this International Competition, placing all the materials sent at the free disposal of the Organization and of the Record Company of the International Competition, so that it may be included, should I be the winner of the International Competition, in the new musical publication/production/edition both in physical format (CD) and/or in dematerialized format (download/downloadable), to this end I declare to have provided on such material of text and images, and audio, to acquire any and all possible authorizations of the owners and/or third parties if necessary without any support nor costs of the International Competition organization or Record Company, which I since now confirm without delays to the Organization. I declare to release the Organization of the International Competition and the International Record Company selected by the Organization, from any and all liability, reason, right, claim, losses, even of/by third parties (holding the Organization and/or the International Competition Record Company harmless from any claim, responsibilities, damages, losses), with reference to the material I enclose into this application entry form, authorizing the Organization and the Record Company of the International Competition to any and all technical/aesthetic/formal/substantial adaptations that may be necessary for the reasons of the musical production and fitting, foreseen in case of winning the International Competition. I declare that I shall not ask any money return for any type of production, distribution, sale, give away, rental, transmission, broadcasting, radio broadcasting, streaming, duplication, broadcasting, promotion, printing, reissue, collection, attachment, record publication, authorizing the Organization and the Record Company to the directly and/or indirectly related activities, for any use, commercial or not. Similarly, I declare that I shall not ask any money return for phonographic rights and related copyrights. I declare that all the documentation transmitted, including the identification of the undersigned is in duly conformity with the original in my possession and that it is legally valid and current in my Country and corresponds to the truth. I declare to relieve the Organization and the Record Company from any liability, damages and losses, direct and/or indirect, for actions, requests and claims by other third parties in reference to each and all materials (texts, images, audio) I enclosed to my participation to the International Competition. I declare to accept that the Court for any eventually dispute concerning my participation to the International Competition, also and where in competition with different alternative Courts, I accept the exclusively Court of Pordenone (Italy), with applicable law only the Italian one.
